BLAINE'S CHARGES FLATLY DENIED BY ROAD COMMISSION

GOVERNOR'S LETTER IS FULL OF ERRORS,

POLITICS DENIED

Chairman Hotchkiss Quotes
Executive's Own Words in Refutation.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Madison — Charges that Governor Blaine's statements regarding the state highway program are bringing the highway department and work into political strife and that the statements made by the governor in his letter to the road commission this week are contained in a letter addressed to the executive today by W. O. Hotchkiss, chairman of the state highway commission.

The principal claims of Chairman Hotchkiss' communication follow:
1. The governor's letter is "full of errors" regarding activities of the highway department.

2. The highway commission and department have "not engaged in politics or influenced county highway officials."

3. The highway commission was formed under plans "suggested by Governor La Follette."

4. The procedure of submitting and approving federal aid contracts has been used for three years without the governor's opposition.

5. "The people of Wisconsin know that the director of the highway department has not engaged in politics."

6. The commission has not forced or stimulated the highway program.

7. The commission has reduced administrative costs $50,000 during the past eight months.

8. "Full of errors."
"I deeply regret the unnecessary and unjustified publication, as your letter is full of errors that I might have corrected if given the opportunity, and especially if you had granted me the interview I requested on the 17th of this month," Chairman Hotchkiss' letter begins.

Washington — His cold having improved slightly over night, President Coolidge returned to his office today, facing the busy week of the cabinet. The cold appeared yesterday to have grown worse, and as a result he spent most of the day in his room. This morning he took one of his early morning walks and was at his desk in the executive offices before Secretary Scump and Clark, any of the White House staff had reported for the day.

Elkhorn — Place of $200 and costs or one year in the county jail were meted out to three Janesville men for dynamiting fish in Turtle Creek here Friday morning by County Judge Edward Morriss. The men who pleaded guilty to violation of the game laws on charges preferred by Game Warden William J. Elliott, Whitewater, are Henry Fuchs and Harry, of 115 South Jackson street, and M. M. Whitt, Janesville, whose home is in North Carolina. The two Fuchs are said to be employed by the Fisher Body company, Janesville.

The violation occurred Sunday, May 4, on Turtle Creek, between Fairfield and Darlen, when the three men caught 25 fish by use of the dynamite.

Dynamite Is Found.
Finding of a stick of dynamite with fuse and cap in a barrel near the stream led to the arrest of the Janesville men, for which Deputy Warden Elliott deserves credit.

Henry Fuchs has been placed on probation, but his father and Whitt are in the Walworth county jail while they attempt to secure the amount to pay their fine. Turtle Creek at one time was the finest stream for small mouth bass in this section, but has been robbed of its game fish by the depredations of the men who used dynamite and other methods in violation of the law.

Five In Local Court
Plead Not Guilty.
Charged with dynamiting Turtle Creek in the town of Bradford, Rock county, for the purpose of killing and capturing fish, five Janesville men were arraigned in Rock county municipal court here Friday. All pleaded not guilty and their cases were adjourned to June 3 at 10 a. m. by Judge H. J. Macdonald.

The five are Frank Wagnon, Ed. Shilenjanski, Albert Metzinger, William Dyal, and Fred Bruning. The arrest was made by J. A. Gray, Milton, new game conservation warden for this section.

The five were released without bail.

Washington — A breach between legislative and executive opinion on the pending tax reduction bill, confronted President Coolidge today.

The measure, supported by republican leaders in congress, is expected to reach his desk next week if the bill is passed by the senate and house conferees. Secretary Mellon, whose tax reduction plan was supported by the president, but rejected by congress, meanwhile has made known his opposition to several provisions of the pending bill. The republican leaders in congress are openly pleased with the measure and declare a "more severe" bill is the only alternative.

The main points of difference are on the publicity provisions and the collection of internal revenue. The measure would require the public inspection of the tax returns, but accepted an amendment directing the collection of internal revenue to be made public the name, address and amount of tax paid by each taxpayer. The hearings of the proposed bill of tax appeals also would be open to the public.

The conference report will be taken up Saturday by the senate.

KIDNAPERS SLAY RICH YOUTH; GIRL ABDUCTED

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Chicago — The kidnaping and ransom theory in the mysterious death of 14-year-old Robert Franks came to the fore again today when the coroner's chemist declared there was no evidence of a degenerative attack as officials had announced earlier.

Polson, Dr. W. D. McNally, the chemist said, might have caused external evidence to show an earlier theory of kidnaping was "drawn." Police said they were keeping under surveillance an instructor in the private school attended by young Franks.

BULLETIN.
Chicago — Coroner's physician Springer declared definitely today that the boy was a victim of a crime of degeneration. The physician did not state, however, what he believed to have been the exact cause of death.

Chicago — Clues leading both to high culture and to degeneracy mystified the police today in solving the kidnaping and murder of a 14-year-old boy, Robert Franks, 14, son of Jacob Franks, a Chicago manufacturer, rated at several million dollars.

Franks started to walk three blocks to his home late Wednesday afternoon, after unimpairing a ball game, and was not seen again until his body was found, nude and bruised, under a railroad culvert several miles away.

Police and coroner said today there was evidence a degenerate had attacked him. The coroner said poison apparently had caused death. Soon after the kidnaping and before probable hour fixed by the coroner for the death, Mrs. Franks, the mother, received a telephone call from a suave speaking man that the boy was held for $10,000 ransom. The directions how to pay would come later, and warning her not to trace telephone calls.

The injunction about tracing calls was disregarded. Next morning, about 10 o'clock, the body was discovered. The family received a letter, which police and school instructors said was written by a well educated person, demanding $10,000 ransom and the boy's return.

Investigation as to whether it was copied from some well known magazine story produced no known analogy.

Investigators quizzed. Three instructors of the Harvard school were questioned in detail concerning the Franks boy. Walter (Continued on Page 5)

FUNDAMENTALISTS HAVE UPPER HAND

Election of Moderator for Presbyterian Church Indicates Stand.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Grand Rapids, Mich. — The 126th general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America met today to business today after the first fundamentalist-indebted day yesterday, which the fundamentalists won in the election of Dr. Clarence Macintyre, Philadelphia pastor, as moderator.

Today the debate over the bill and overtures and the transaction of the business of the church by the 329 commissioners—ministers and elders—began.

The conservative element appeared to have a commanding majority, as evidenced by Dr. Macintyre's election, and this was regarded as a significant victory for the fundamentalists in the election of Dr. Clarence Macintyre, Philadelphia pastor, as moderator.

The outgoing moderator and his probable successor went over all the questions that are to the fore, including the debate over the bill and overtures and the transaction of the business of the church by the 329 commissioners—ministers and elders—began.

At the same time the tools were seen, a shotgun, foreign made automatic revolver and camera were stolen, which have not been recovered.

When the cash and checks were stolen in a tin box located in a drawer behind the counter. The highwayman, masked and armed, walked directly behind the counter and took the box and escaped. The Colorado authorities advised the district attorney here that Bingham still had this tin box in his possession, but nothing was said about the cash or checks.

Bingham is also supposed to have been recovered a kit of shoe-maker's tools in Wray, Colo., and these were recovered at the Leyden farm.

The Blodgett Mill watchman, A. Hyatt Smith was held up and relieved of his weeks pay during the time Bingham is reported to have been in Rock county.

May Be Brought Here
Information is being sought by the district attorney here to determine in more detail how the Colorado authorities know Bingham was associated with the three robberies here. One message intimating that Bingham would waive extradition papers and come to Janesville here this morning, but the youth back here for arraignment in the event a confession has been obtained.

ULTIMATUM, REPLY OF GOVERNOR TO HOTCHKISS STAND

THREAT TO RE-ORGANIZE COMMISSION SEEN IN LETTER.

ECONOMY, IS CRY

Too Much Money Spent Upon Highways, Blaine Insists in Sharp Note.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Madison — What is declared to be an open threat to re-organize the state highway commission was given by Governor Blaine today in a letter to W. O. Hotchkiss, in answer to a communication from the highway commission chairman. The governor declared that his policies regarding reorganization must be "carried out promptly."

The governor further declared that he "will not be driven aside about economy and retrenchment by an academic discussion of lecture."

The letter addressed to Chairman Hotchkiss immediately upon receipt of the highway commissioner's letter follows:
"In your personal reply to my communication to the highway department, you miss the point. The point is that $10 out of every $100 paid in taxes is too much money to spend on highways when farmers, small business men and other taxpayers are passing through this crisis of depression."

"I will not be driven aside from my course to bring about economy and retrenchment in this or any other matter by any academic discussion or lecture."

"I set forth to the commission seven essential requirements to effect economy. Every statement in my former communication stands unaltered and unaffected by anything you say. I insist that those policies be promptly carried out."

The governor's letter is expected to precipitate open action by the highway commission.

Chairman Hotchkiss is in Detroit attending a conference of a national committee on highway finances and therefore could not be reached for a statement regarding the governor's letter. No meeting of the highway commission is scheduled for today at the highway department, although the next regular session will be held early in June.

SIMMONS SWINGS CONGRESS ON TAX

Minority General Out-Maneuvers Republicans on Revenue Bill.

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1924, by the Janesville Gazette. Special Correspondence to the Janesville Gazette.

Washington—A little general from North Carolina—Senator Furnifold McDowell Simmons—has outmaneuvered the entire republican leadership, including President Coolidge, Secretary Mellon, and the legislative managers of the republicans in the public party in congress. For, though the republicans are in control of congress, a tax bill written by the minority—the democrats—will become law. Senator Simmons, perhaps the most experienced man on tax matters in the upper house and one who has served long on the finance committee in the preparation of the revenue acts of previous years, was assisted by the strategy of Representative Garner, democrat of Texas, in the house. Altogether they have put through a bill that President Coolidge will sign, chiefly because he cannot afford to veto it. The objectionable features—the publicity of tax returns and the undistributed profits tax—have been eliminated, and one suspects now they were put in there in the first place for trading purposes, so as to insure the retention of the Simmons rates when the conference committee acted.

In Amazing Development
It is one of the most amazing legislative developments in a generation. The democrats, of course, were aided by the insurgent republicans, without whose votes the Simmons rates would not have prevailed, but the republican leadership had the same opportunity as did the democrats to win those insurgents. The regular republican leaders privately are disappointed, for they could have written the type of bill Senator Simmons offered, but they were restrained by the desire of the president and the secretary of the treasury that a record vote be obtained on the Mellon plan.

The chief difference between the Mellon proposal and the Simmons rates is that persons with incomes running up to $66,000 a year will get a greater reduction in taxes under the Simmons plan than under the Mellon scheme. Above $66,000 and running to $100,000, the reductions would have been greater under the Mellon plan, though there is really only a slight difference. Above $100,000, however, the differences are material. The Mellon plan would have cut the taxes of the persons of larger income, the theory being that such a procedure would help business by stimulating capital to go into productive enterprises. Senator Simmons introduced as a counter proposal the idea that under his plan more individuals would benefit—some 6,000,000—and argued that the persons of larger income were not suffering now. As between the two sides, the insurgent republican group chose to follow Senator Simmons.

Income Tax Cut
All parties were agreed to the plan to give the tax-payers a flat 25 percent reduction on taxes payable this year on 1923 incomes. It has been retained in the bill approved by the conference committee, which will become law. This provides that a tax-payer on June 15 next will not pay the same quarterly installment which he paid on March 15, 1923. Instead, he will be obliged to pay much less. For instance, if his total tax bill for 1923 was $1,000 and therefore he paid a fourth on March 15, he will subtract the one-fourth reduction arrived at by the new law, which makes a final tax of $750, and he will credit himself with the $250 already paid in March, so that the balance due will be $500, which can be paid in installments of $166.66 each on June 15, Sept. 15, and Dec. 15.

Comparative Table Given
Here is a table which shows what taxes will be payable during 1925 on incomes received during 1924:

2 MILES OF WATER MAIN IS PURCHASED

Further Extensions to City's System Will Be Made This Year.

Two miles of water mains will be laid by the city this year. City Manager Henry Tinsler announced Friday, in addition to several miles of storm and sanitary sewer mains, water and sewer laterals.

The city has already received 9,000 feet of cast iron pipe for water mains and an order was placed this week for 1,000 feet more of 6-inch pipe. Another order was placed for 500 hydrants to be shipped by the Tinsler Valve company, Troy, N. Y.

The pipe for water main has been purchased from the United States Cast Iron and Pipe Company, Chicago, in the following quantities:

1,000 feet of 12-inch,
2,200 feet of 8-inch,
6,000 feet of 6-inch,
250 feet of 4-inch.

The water mains will be laid by the water department under the special assessment plan. Work will be started soon.

He Told His Wife—

"Let's have Mapleine Sundaes for dessert," he said. "Bob Evans, my office neighbor, introduced me to them at a soda fountain the other day."

"He tells me his wife serves them often at home. They certainly are delicious. There's an old-fashioned richness in the syrup that suits me 'down to the ground.'"

Mapleine Sundaes are easily and quickly made—simply by topping ice cream with home-made Mapleine syrup. For home desserts in days of summer heat there's nothing finer! Cooling, inviting, refreshing.

COLD SPRING HAS EFFECT ON MARKET

Early Home Grown Produce Is Scarce—Pineapple Season at Height.

Special sales with cut prices and other inducements to buy are being offered by local dealers this week-end on pineapples, now at the height of their season. While standard prices are 15 to 20 cents according to size and grade, many are selling at prices 2 to 5 cents lower, and making special prices on dozen lots, some as low as $1.50.

Among the vegetables this week, home grown asparagus at 20 cents a pound.

Leaf lettuce, the first seen here since last December, is 40 cents a pound. The reason for its scarcity this year is not known to dealers. A large supply in 1923 sold for 25 cents. Head lettuce remains at 15 cents each and is of improved quality this week.

Strawberries Drop Again.
Another drop, this time of 8 to 10 cents a quart, in the price of strawberries, took place this week and with the 10 cent cut last week, they are now selling for less than half the price charged two weeks ago. Prevailing prices are 15 to 20 cents. No further fluctuations in the old potato market are expected this season.

bunch is rather scarce, as are other local farm products on account of the continued cool weather. A few radishes from this vicinity have been brought to the city this week, but are so scarce that no definite quotation has been established, each of the few dealers carrying them, making his price in accordance with that asked by the grower. The shipped-in kind are 8 cents, the same price as asked at this time a year ago, and are two cents under a week ago.

PLAYER CASE NOW CLOSED ON ACQUITTAL

Findings of the coroner's jury Thursday that Roy M. Player, department head of the Fisher Body company, came to his death by accident and that there is no cause for criminal prosecution, closes the state's investigation. The accident occurred April 29 on the Detroit road when a car driven by Harry Randall, plant manager of the Fisher Body company, was wrecked, and Player fatally hurt.

Randall's exoneration of blame in connection with the death of his life-long friend was voted by the jury in short order after they heard him testify as the 14th witness. Randall declared the car overturned when he went to pass a Ford coupe at a curve on the Detroit road, saw another car coming at him, was blinded by the lights and then planned to swing back in place behind the car which he had desired to pass. His foot struck the brake pedal on an angle and slipped off onto the accelerator with sufficient force to open the engine wide. The car then shot forward and skidded from one side to the other. His foot was caught for a moment on a burr

WILL PROBE BABY CASE

The case of the infant child, whose body was found in a quart glass jar near Turtle Creek, and now in custody of the Beloit police department, is held open by County Coroner Lynn M. Whaley for further investigation, he said Friday.

The remains are believed to be those of a six month old born prematurely. The theory is advanced that the body might be one which had been in possession of a physician or surgeon.

The coroner is not overlooking the possibility that it might have been destroyed by some person desiring to conceal the birth of the child. Should such evidence be discovered, criminal prosecution of those responsible, would follow.

WILL PROBE BABY CASE

The case of the infant child, whose body was found in a quart glass jar near Turtle Creek, and now in custody of the Beloit police department, is held open by County Coroner Lynn M. Whaley for further investigation, he said Friday.

The remains are believed to be those of a six month old born prematurely. The theory is advanced that the body might be one which had been in possession of a physician or surgeon.

The coroner is not overlooking the possibility that it might have been destroyed by some person desiring to conceal the birth of the child. Should such evidence be discovered, criminal prosecution of those responsible, would follow.

DAVIDSON VISITS SUGAR FACTORY

Michigan G. O. P. Leader, Recently Offered Cabinet Post, Spends Day Here.

James Davidson, Jr., Bay City, Mich., recently elected chairman of the state central republican committee, made his annual visit to the Rock County sugar company plant Thursday. Mr. Davidson is closely associated with his father, Capt. James Davidson, in the latter's various interests of which the Janesville sugar plant is a part.

Mr. Davidson, Jr., in the secretary and treasurer of the Rock County sugar company, his father being president. He came Wednesday night and spent the entire day Thursday at the local plant, inspecting it and going over matters with James G. Garrison, superintendent. No extensive improvements are planned at present, Mr. Garrison said, but the plant will continue to operate on its present large scale.

The official of the local concern was recently in the public eye, being offered the portfolio of secretary of the navy by President Coolidge as Edwin Dwyer's successor. The president wanted Mr. Davidson because of his knowledge of marine interests, which was desired as one of the qualifications.

Any man can make himself conspicuous by carrying a string of fish up the street.

FORMER CHURCH DIRECTOR LOSES

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Boston.—The state supreme court today dismissed the bill in equity brought by J. V. Dittmore, seeking to have the directors of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, compelled to recognize him as a member of the board. Dittmore claimed that he had been removed from the board illegally.

Delavan Rotary Backs up Guard

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE)
Delavan.—The Delavan Rotary club voted a unanimous endorsement of the local unit of the National Guard in the following resolution: "Following most firmly in the ideals of peace and the moderate program of National Defense, such as the nation now possesses, is not inconsistent with these ideals, we the members of the Rotary club of Delavan hereby vote our cordial support of the organization."

"We further express it to be our convictions that all men of the proper age and health, who enlist and serve honestly and faithfully are performing not only a patriotic duty but are discharging a civic obligation as well."

Rotarians G. W. Boardman and C. J. Summer spoke for the resolution, stating that as the company had been organized three years ago, many enlistments are expiring soon and that those men re-enlisting and the new members should feel that the community believes in what they are doing. There is a character value in a young man's having a definite service to render aside from the defense of military activities.

Alderman George Wood, Duncan McFarlane and William Fernholz are a committee to take charge of Memorial day exercises, and $125 will be allowed by the city to defray expenses.

FEEDING TRIALS

SHOW HEAVY COST

In Production of Quality Beef
—Cheap Canner Beef Cutting Prices.

A new day will dawn for the beef producers of the state when Wisconsin meat eaters cease eating beef from old dairy cows and demand high quality beef from animals fitted by nature to produce good roasts and juicy beefsteaks.

That is the feeling of J. W. Martin, Richland county breeder and feeder, as he expressed it at the feeding demonstration recently held at the college of agriculture, Madison. In the use of alfalfa and clover hay as supplementary feeds for steers, the results of the feeding trials gave clover a slight edge over alfalfa. As a feed for baby beefs, linseed oil meal led out by a big margin.

In the steer feeding trials, two lots of 10 steers each, weighing practically the same on the average, made an average gain of 273.1 pounds in the case of the clover fed steers and an average gain of 275.5 pounds when fed alfalfa during the period trial of 166 days. The average daily gain was the same for the two lots, 1.55 pounds per animal.

The Rations Used
The average ration used in the experiment consisted of 19 pounds of corn, 27 pounds of corn silage, 6.5 pounds of clover hay in one case and 5.5 pounds of alfalfa hay for the other lot, and 7.1 pounds of cottonseed meal for the clover fed animals as compared to 8 pound for the alfalfa fed steers.

For each 100 pounds gain the clover fed steers got 219.9 pounds of corn, 72.1 pounds of cottonseed meal, 271 pounds of clover hay, and 1298.7 pounds of corn silage. Their counterparts made like gains on 220.7 pounds of corn, 11.2 pounds of cottonseed meal, 274.4 pounds of alfalfa hay, and 1291.3 pounds of corn silage. The difference between the two groups was 20 cents more, pork profits from hogs following the steers, not deducted.

Made Good Profit
The net profit per steer in the clover fed group, not including pork profit, was $16.18. When the pork profit was added this group returned a net profit of over $20 per head of $22.26 per steer. The alfalfa fed animals made a profit without the pork profits of $15.12. With the pork profits added they averaged $21.50 net return per steer over cost of feed.

In announcing the results of the baby beef feeding trials, J. G. Fuller of the animal husbandry department of the Wisconsin college of agriculture, under whose directions the experiments were carried on, said: "Perhaps we had better not get too enthusiastic about the baby beef production, but consider seriously all of the costs involved."

Baby Beef Trials
In the baby beef feeding trials two lots of five animals each, weighing 60.9 pounds in each lot, were fitted against each other for 168 days to see whether better gains could be made on cottonseed meal than on linseed oil meal.

A margin of $2.51 more profit was made on the baby beefs that got linseed oil meal as a part of their ration over what was made by the cottonseed meal group of baby beefs. The estimated profit per animal in the latter group was $2.51, while the former paid a profit of $11.07 per animal.

The average daily ration per animal consisted of 6.5 pounds of cracked corn, 2.5 pounds of cracked corn, 1.5 pounds of corn silage, 4.6 pounds of alfalfa hay and .98 pound of cottonseed meal for one lot and .98 pound of linseed oil meal for the other lot.

Cottonseed Meal
The cottonseed meal group was fed 220.8 pounds of cracked corn, 158.3 pounds of cracked corn, 51.4 pounds of cottonseed meal, 32.5 pounds of corn silage and 298.9 pounds of alfalfa hay for each 100 pounds of gain. The linseed oil meal group made 100 pounds of gain on 227.7 pounds of cracked corn, 115.3 pounds of cracked corn, 42.3 pounds of linseed oil meal, 759.1 pounds of corn silage, and 122.1 pounds of alfalfa hay.

In the cottonseed meal group the average gain per animal was 221.7 pounds, and the average gain per animal in the linseed oil meal group was 219.4 pounds—a margin of 2.3 pounds per animal.

FINAL HEARING ON CHEESE POOL WED.

George Hull Calls Conference to Organize Cheese Industry of State.

Madison—Final plans for carrying into effect the new Wisconsin Foreign Cheese Producers' federation will be worked out at a conference of the organization committee here May 23. The meeting will be held in the state department of markets. The session has been called by George Hull, White-water, chairman of the committee and president of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau federation.

Articles of incorporation of the new federation will be drawn up and presented to the committee at the meeting. Together with resolutions representing the attitudes of factories to the plan. After the formal organization session here, a campaign for enrollment of factories in the federation will be undertaken.

The federation plan contemplated brings all producers into a selling organization, which operates factories manufacturing Swiss, Brick and Limburger cheese. The federation will center in seven counties—Green, Lafayette, Dane, Dodge, Washington, and Columbia—where these counties produce the largest part of the state's output.

It is estimated that the selling agency to be formed will handle at least 5,000,000 pounds of cheese in each of the general districts, the seven counties being divided roughly into three which produce practically all brick cheese (Dodge, Columbia, and Washington), and those which manufacture Swiss and Limburger (Green, Lafayette, Dane, and Iowa).

General meetings held at Madison, Juneau, Monroe, Mt. Horeb, Darlington, South Wayne, Argyle and Bluefield have given approval to the plan, which is backed by the college of agriculture, departments of markets and agriculture and several farm organizations.

HAL FINDS BOOZE AMONG RAFTERS OF LAKE GENEVA HOME

Elkhorn—Sheriff Hal Wyllie found a new place for hiding liquor when he called at the home and restaurant of Joe Brozovsky, Lake Geneva. He searched the basement of both places carefully but to no avail.

However, the sheriff is one of the tallest in the county and in the attic of the home, his eyes wandered among the rafters from which, suspended in paper sacks, were bottles containing two gallons of alcohol. Numerous empty bottles were found.

While the search was being conducted Joe disappeared. The state line is not far away.

It is reported Mr. Wyllie did not call for a step ladder.

ention that the highway department has influenced county officials, the letter says:

"The county officials mentioned are elected by the county boards throughout the state and the county highway commission has no voice in their selection. There has long existed mutual confidence between the commission and the county organizations but no one has ever before charged the commission with being in politics because of it."

Chairman Hotchkiss then quoted from recent addresses of the Governor in which he is quoted as saying that neither inefficiency nor politics have entered into the state's highway program. Governor Blaine also is quoted as having supported the adoption of the present highway commission organization while a member of the legislature.

Denies Drafting Bill
Regarding the charge that the highway commission should leave to other departments financial work, Mr. Hotchkiss declared that a statement issued by Senator Standen, now a member of the commission, during the last legislature, denied that the highway department was drafting the road finance bill. The letter continues:

CONTRACTS HAS CAUSED "MUCH DELAY AND CONFUSION"

signatures and the methods pursued. The same procedure has been followed in handling these contracts ever since you have been Governor. You have signed the last three years over $15,000,000 of contracts with this same information furnished. There has been no criticism or even suggestion in this period that you wished the commission to pursue any other course in handling contracts. The first information we had of your change of attitude was when I received your communication. Why did you not take this up with the commission and suggest a different procedure? For three years you have given your tacit approval to the procedure followed which, to say the least, entitles you from using the methods you have taken at this time—going to the public with your criticism without taking up with the commission the remedy which you sought."

It was charged that the governor's failure to sign pending road contracts has caused "much delay and confusion." The governor has signed but one contract for construction work since April 17, the latter states. A further states that the Governor's action with regard to the highway program "cannot help but shake the public confidence and render political strife in a state activity which the commission members (save one) have striven to keep out of politics."

The entire commission will answer the Governor's letter later, it was said.

WISCONSIN TOBACCO MARKET

Edgerton—The Wisconsin Tobacco Reporter Friday says:

"The market the past week has been very quiet with little doing in trading of any kind, about the only activity being the picking up of the remnants of the independent stemming still remaining unsold. The tobacco company and Job Mcintosh are in the field in the Cottage Grove and Marshall section haying generally at prices around the 7 and 8 cent mark."

"The cool weather is still with us. Tuesday morning showers and white frost. While no damage has resulted to the young tobacco plants protected by canvas, it is feared that the fruit trees, many of which are in full bloom, have been more or less injured."

"Stories are rife in regard to pool members who wish to sidestep their contracts. One procedure seems to be to rent the tobacco land, preferably to sons who are not pool members. In some cases where the owner of the shareman is a pool member, the non-pool member hires the pool member to do the work for wages to raise the crop, giving the non-pool member absolute ownership. Just how extensively these schemes will be worked is unknown, but it is known that they will be tried out."

Your Motor is Made to Precision — Why Isn't Its Fuel

ENGINE measurements are not "pretty near" or "just about" or "fairly close". Vital parts must fit with micrometer precision—split-hair fineness—or they don't pass muster.

Right—but if exactness is so necessary in the running parts, why isn't it of some importance in the power that makes them run? It doesn't stand to reason that a fuel which is uneven in vaporizing, unsteady in sparking and ragged in exploding, can be good for a fine mechanism whose performance and long life rest on thousandths-of-an-inch precision and uniformity.

Wadhams True Gasoline

matches, in the precision and uniformity of its manufacture and in quality of its materials, the mechanical rightness of your motor. It is held—always—to the same precise quality measurement. It is maintained to a mark known by every petroleum expert to represent a higher grade than is furnished on a similar scale anywhere else in America.

Insist on enjoying the special advantages of its use—the invariable sameness and dependability under all conditions—its instant firing, full volumed power and complete freedom from carbon and destructive kerosene.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR, GOD'S MAN

COMMENT ON THE INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FOR MAY 25, 1924.

Read Jeremiah 26.

WM. SOUTHERN, JR.

Two tall figures stand out in the history which records the downfall of the Kingdom of Judah. King of Nebuchadnezzar and the Prophet Jeremiah. Nebuchadnezzar was the King of Babylon, the man who directed the final invasion of Judah and reduced the great temple to ruins and carried the leaders away into captivity. Jeremiah was the great prophet of his time, contemporary with Nebuchadnezzar, the man who writes the history which offers us a test for the present lesson.

It is rather startling to find in the writing of this prophet a reference to the heathen king as "God's servant." The reference suggests a great many things we do not like to consider. We hug to ourselves the idea that we are especially favored of God, that we have the truth in religion and that the Chinese, for instance, are merely heathen and are not to be considered on the same level.

This was the view which the Jews took of God. He was the God of the Jews and those who were not Jews had no part in Him. Even in the days of the early Christian church it took the gentiles a long time to admit that Gentiles had any part in the new religion and Paul was so disgusted with the views of church leaders that he declared himself the apostle to the Gentiles.

Nebuchadnezzar was the greatest king of his time and few kings of any time have equalled him. Babylon under his rule became the supreme power of the civilized world. The king was noted and lives in history as a constructive builder. His cities and temples were marvels and the beauties of Babylon stood as one of the seven wonders of the world.

Was this heathen king God's man? Jeremiah said he was and his record as a wise and merciful ruler would support that claim. Yet this is the man who wrecked the temple of God at Jerusalem and left the Jews in the Jews in smoking ruins and made captives of the people.

Jeremiah was the most courageous man in history. He was unpopular, he was in the minority, he was regarded as a traitor, he was tried for treason, he was despised by the nobles and the priests of his own day, and yet he had the courage to stand and tell them all unpleasant truths by sidestepping a little and keeping his mouth shut he could have had place and power and wealth.

Jeremiah lived during the last days of Judah as a kingdom. The nation was doomed. Indeed, it was really no longer an independent nation for it was tributary to Egypt and then to Babylon. Its kings were set upon the throne or pulled down at the will of Nebuchadnezzar. The last of these unhappy kings was Zedekiah. He plotted against Babylon and with Egypt and brought the final campaign which entirely wrecked the kingdom. He himself was led a captive in the train of his conqueror, living in his nose, his eyes pained out with a sharp stick and then placed in an iron cage to be shown a captive of war. He has little place in the story.

Jeremiah stood before the king and the nobles and the priests and told them that Jerusalem would be destroyed. He was called a traitor and a trial was demanded. The nobles acquitted him, but he was finally thrown into a dungeon and res-men declined passionately. "Give me liberty or give me death." They were willing to fight and die. Even the hordes of Nebuchadnezzar were two years in subduing the city. Jeremiah opposed all this and advised submission to Nebuchadnezzar. He was in the eyes of his own people a traitor. When he attempted to leave the city and go to his home three miles out in the suburbs, he was arrested and charged with trying to desert to the camp of the Chaldeans.

I do not know of a harder job than to try to stem the tide of an excited public opinion. The mob psychology is the same today that it was in 605 B. C. when Jerusalem fell. A preacher today who tries to preach doctrines unwelcome to his audience has a hard time and has to seek out other audience. No orator could get a hearing for an unpopular doctrine no matter how true. Newspapers well understand this and it is a bold editor who will take an unpopular side and stick to it.

People want to hear the things in which they believe. That is why political meetings are partisan meetings.

Why did God permit Judah to fall and the temple to be destroyed? The reason is very clear. It is exactly the same reason which raises men and nations to high power today and destroys other men and nations. It is the same reason which caused the downfall of Germany.

The instinctive love of truth, of righteousness, of the rights of others, respect for ownership of property and for the decrees of decency and custom mark the standards of the individual. Also these things mark the standards of nations. The law is irrevocable and unchangeable. When God's laws are violated ruin follows.

You may believe in God or not, you may call religion superstition, you may sneer at prayer, but you know very well that if you cease to be decent and violate the laws of God and customs of society, you will be banished from among your fellows.

That is exactly what happened to Judah. Nebuchadnezzar, a heathen king, was God's man and carried out his purposes.

World's Largest Single Clothing Plant Offers You a Demonstrated $40 VALUE in Men's Serges at $29.50

The CLOTHCRAFT Shops in Cleveland are not only the world's largest clothing plant under one roof, but one of the most famous manufacturing institutions in existence. Manufacturing experts from every country on the globe come to inspect this plant and study its scientific manufacturing methods.

700,000 Suits a Year Capacity Cuts CLOTHCRAFT Prices for you!

Here are specific reasons why every CLOTHCRAFT Suit and Overcoat is $10.50 LOWER in price than the VALUE you'll find in the garment.

- 1 CLOTHCRAFT Clothing is manufactured in the world's largest single clothing plant... with a capacity of 700,000 garments a year. It is the most completely equipped plant in the clothing industry, and a plant that has developed manufacturing along such scientific lines that manufacturers from every country on the face of the earth come to inspect the plant whenever they come to America. You know what such manufacturing has done in other lines to cut costs. You get the CLOTHCRAFT Shops' manufacturing economies in the CLOTHCRAFT retail price.
- 2 Most of the important improvements in the manufacture of men's clothes in the last 20 years have originated in the CLOTHCRAFT Shops! That means that CLOTHCRAFT is the pioneer in nearly every move that will give you more VALUE for what you pay.
- 3 The Joseph & Feiss Company, makers of CLOTHCRAFT Clothes, are the oldest manufacturers of men's clothing in America. They have been making honest clothes honestly for 78 years!
- 4 The VALUE that is built into CLOTHCRAFT Clothes is not a hidden promise, but quality that can be proved. For instance, a CLOTHCRAFT Coat can be soaked into a bucket of water, thoroughly drenched, hung up, dried and repressed without in any way harming its fit, its good looks or its color! Tailoring of just that quality goes into every suit that's taken in the entire Suit.
